

Pete Ramstad

Capella Education Company

Pete Ramstad joined Capella Education Company as Sr. VP of HR and CHRO in 2015.

Previously, he spent nine years with The Toro Company, where he had global responsibility for both human resources and mergers and acquisitions. Before joining Toro, he spent 25 years in organizational, strategic and financial consulting, both as a partner with a large CPA firm, and then as an executive with Personnel Decisions International (PDI), where he was CFO, and later started the strategy practice. In that role, he consulted on HR functional strategy with several Fortune 500 organizations. While working for PDI, he was co-author of articles and chapters in the HR field and co-wrote the book “Beyond HR” with John Boudreau, which was published by Harvard Business School Press.

Mr. Ramstad holds a BS in Math and Accounting from University of Minnesota-Twin Cities.
